

Benefit Concerts

The Virginia Thurston Healing Garden Cancer Support Center is pleased to announce two benefit concerts happening in September. Elliott Steger, MD will perform a virtual Jazz Concert on Sunday, September 12th at 3:00pm. The program will include original tunes as well as jazz standards and songs from Billy Joel. On Sunday, September 26th, Tom Smith, award-winning Folk Music performer and songwriter will perform outside at the Healing Garden. Registrations are required for both virtual and in person outdoor concerts, which are being offered, free of charge and are open to the public. Donations are appreciated and there is an opportunity when registering to make a secure online donation in support of the Healing Garden cancer services. See website for more details and to register. www.healinggardensupport.org Questions may be directed to Concert Coordinator Michele Abroff. Email: concert_coordinator@healinggardensupport.org or call 978-456-3532.

Maynard Folding DNA

Welcome to Maynard Folds. This is a virtual origami museum exhibition contest. Everyone is welcome. Children and adults. Novices and experts. Pass on the word. Prizes awarded!

On this Saturday, September 11, 2021 at 3-6pm at Memorial Park in Maynard we will have Community Folding with 30+ origami books including folding, socializing, and photography, to fold and submit. From 4:30-6pm, on the solemn date, we will have a memorial service, observing the 20th Anniversary of 9/11.

Sunday, September 19, 2021 at 11:59pm is the submission deadline. Email Ms. Lisa B. Corfman at Lisa@OrigamiMuseum.org with the application or drop in off in the contest box at the Maynard Public Library.

On Sunday, October 24 at 7-8:30pm, we are hosting a virtual opening reception and awards night with our project overview, virtual museum tour, announcements of awards with museum highlights and a big thank you.

All information about the contest (information and application) is at <https://origamimuseum.org/opportunities/>.

Maynard Folds are your creative pleats for the community. Your pleats are made from you folding DNA, so fold forward and come join!
