

Indiana

Recommended Paper: kami (thin with contrasting front and back).

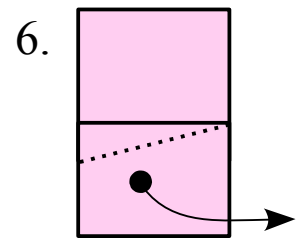

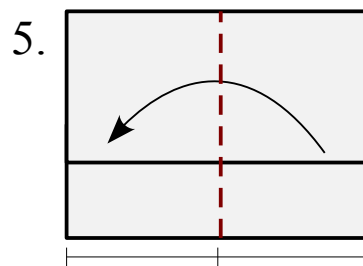

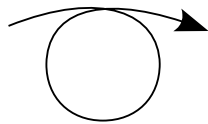

By Wensdy Whitehead

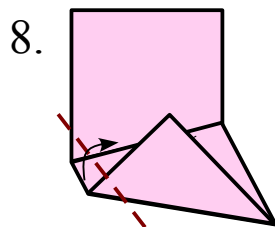

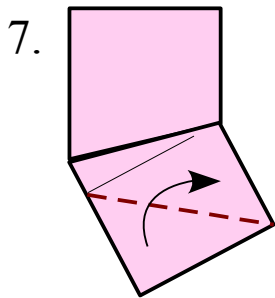

Perpendicular RAT fold at about 3/8 of the height.

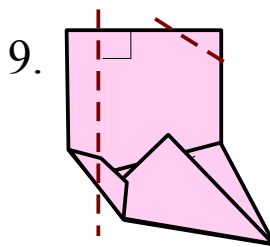

Reinstate the first fold. Let the flap flip forward.

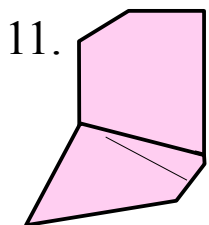

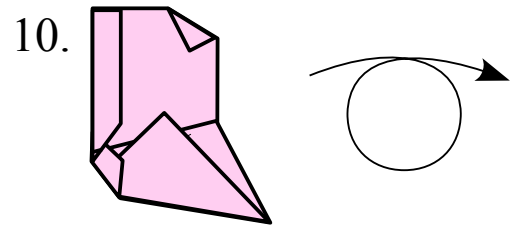

Swing downward opening the pleat on one side.

RAT fold.

Two(2) RAT folds. The larger one is perpendicular to the north edge.

Done!