

A thank you to everyone, FROM LISA B. CORFMAN

We will now say a few thank yous. But now you can enjoy a Vanilla Bean Coolatta from Dunkin Donut anytime to celebrate Wensdy!

First a big thank you Annie Pidel and Dennis Brannon who were amazing friends to Wensdy and made our connection in Wensdy's last 2 months of life possible. Our legacy to Wensdy would not be possible without them.

To Wensdy's good friend Tanja and I, who collected Wensdy's remaining valuable origami items, so, so meaningful!

To Jennie Pidel-Deitsch, there always with Annie as a friend to Wensdy. And to Jennie's family too.

To Wensdy's cousin's Mary Wenzel, Mary's daughter Cheri Wenzel, and Melissa Whitney who collected Wensdy's valuables from her apartment for days. Mary, then Dennis, and Tanja were Wensdy's Health Care Proxies. After Wensdy departed Mary handed her final arrangement.

Final arrangement contributors:

- Annie Pidel
- Jennie Pidel-Deitsch
- Tanja Pevner
- Dennis Brannon
- Joyce Saler
- Judith Starks
- Faye Goldman
- Arlene Gorchov
- Wendy Zeichner
- Cheri Wenzel
- Franck & Jan Johannesen
- Mary & Larry Wenzel.

We thank our Memorial Zoom moderator, Mitch Gordon, for being that dear person.

We also want to thank everyone Wensdy knew, including origami enthusiasts, origami teachers, friends of all kinds, and her family, plus everyone here who is celebrating Wensdy's life. Thank you, thank you, and thank you!

To Marc Kirschenbaum, from OrigamiUSA for advising us so Wensdy's work is honored and protected. Wensdy's legacy wishes are to "Share, share, share... with credits as a must." Wensdy's wrote a statement for her legacy. For all commercial work, permissions will go through Marc or others at OrigamiUSA. I will handle some promotion.

And I thank Wendy Zeichner, president of OrigamiUSA, for her care, time, and support in celebrating Wensdy's life.

A huge thank you to EVERYONE!!!!!!!
